In Appreciation

The family of the late Ethel H. Green thank you for your visits, gifts, calls, prayers, and other expressions of kindness during her illness and during this time of bereavement. You have brought us comfort in so many ways. Your care and concern have made our load easier to endure.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must Leave You for a Little While,
Please Do Not Grieve and Shed Wild Tears
And Hug Your Sorrow to You Through the Years,
But Start out Bravely with a Smile.
And for My Sake and in My Name,
Live on and Do All the Things the Same.
Feed Not Your Loneliness on Empty Days,
But Fill Each Waking Hour in Useful Ways.
Reach out Your Hand in Comfort and in Cheer,
And I, in Turn, Will Comfort You and Hold You Near.
And Never, Never Be Afraid to Die,
For I Am Waiting for You
In the Sky.*

The Obituary

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know."

John 14: 1- 4

Ethel Holloway Green, daughter of the late Peter

Holloway and Ida Holloway Carr, was born February 6, 1921 in Lenoir County. She went to be with the Lord on Friday, November 24, 2006 at Britt Haven in Goldsboro, North Carolina.

She attended the Wayne County Public Schools while living in the Elroy Community, and as a young lady moved to the Webbtown Section of Goldsboro, NC. Ethel was very industrious in the home, and had a great love for her family. After retirement from Textilease Corporation in Goldsboro, she worked as a Foster Grandparent at O'Berry Center.

Realizing everyone needs a church home, she affiliated with Goldsboro Chapel Free Will Baptist Church over fifty years ago. Ethel loved her church, and for years, she was a member of the Mass Choir and the Mother Board.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph Green.

Left to cherish her memories are: her son, Richard M. "Dickie Boy" Cox, and his wife, Janice B. Cox; one granddaughter, Daphne D. Cox-Lassiter; one great-granddaughter, Kara J'Net Lassiter, all of Bowie, Maryland; one first cousin, Mable S. (Zeb) Langston; and a host of other relatives and friends.
