

You Never Said Good-bye

You never said I'm leaving,

You never said good-bye.

You were gone before we knew it,

And only God knows why.

A million times we will miss you,

A million times we have cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life, we loved you dearly,

In death, we love you still.

In our hearts you hold a place,

No one can ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you,

But you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you,

The day God took you home.

Love,

Dad, Mom, Jermaine, and Poohie

Sunset

September 27, 2006

Jamie Gordon Terrell Bannerman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. (Veronica) Bannerman, Sr., was born September 27, 1983. He departed this life on September 27, 2006, at North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Jamie was a loving, humble, kind, devoted son, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin, and friend. He was brought up in the church and accepted Christ in his life at a young age. His church home was Oakey Plain Baptist Church where he was a Youth Usher.

Jamie was educated in the Duplin, Pender, and New Hanover County School Systems. At the time of his demise, Jamie was employed by Logan Heating and Air Conditioning of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Jamie had a unique gift of restoring vintage cars to mint condition.

Jamie was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence James (Willie Mae) Bannerman, Sr.

We Will See Him Again

A Poem of Comfort

I too feel the hurt my family and friends.

We knew this day would come, but it's not the end.

Jamie closed his eyes, on this side, forever more,

But he will awake at Heaven's door.

Remember JESUS went ahead of us all;

To prepare our home, with our FATHER, when HE calls --

Close your eyes and listen to GOD say -

“Jamie is here with ME and here he will stay.”

So dry your eyes my family and friends;

We'll see Jamie . . . we will see him again.

With LOVE,

Caritza
